Privacy Policy

The GRANULENS platform is developed and maintained by the IP owner - Rishika Jerath. GRANULENS is dedicated to respecting your privacy and ensuring transparency in handling your interactions with our platform and its feature(s).

The privacy policy outlines the principles governing the limited use of data collected through this website. Please note that we may update this privacy policy from time to time. We encourage you to review this policy periodically to stay informed about any changes. If significant amendments are made, we will notify you as required. GRANULENS is responsible for any data handling related to this site.

Information We Collect and How We Use It

Our platform is designed to function without the need to collect personal information. We do not collect or store any personally identifiable data from our users. The data entered while registering a new user is to validate credentials and protect the platform.

Aggregate Information

We monitor the usage of our website by collecting non-identifiable aggregate data, such as the number of visitors and how they interact with the features offered. This helps us understand user behaviour and improve the platform's functionality. This information may be shared with other GRANULENS partners and trusted third parties to enhance the service.

Links to Other Websites

This website may contain links to external sites. This privacy policy applies solely to the GRANULENS platform, so we encourage you to review the privacy policies of any external sites you visit. GRANULENS is not responsible for the privacy practices of other websites.

Amendments to the Privacy Policy

GRANULENS reserves the right to amend this privacy policy at any time. Any changes will be posted here.

Questions and Contact Information

If you have any questions about this privacy policy or how we ensure the privacy and security of your data, please get in touch with us at: granulentech@gmail.com
